OLARICHE OBI

Data Analyst

PROFILE

I am a motivated problem solver and team player is ready to dive into the world of data. Graduating from the Nashville Software School's Data Analytics Full Time Bootcamp, I gained skills in SQL, Python, and Excel. I am seeking to employ these skills and further myself in a career of Data Analysis / Data Science.

My primary professional focus is to find a career that will allow me to keep exploring and progressing in the world of data and information technologies. I enjoy problem solving, working in groups, and am eager to learn.
